1. Beginning at 2000 on 20 November 1954, a vintners' party was given at the "Haus der Offiziere" (Officers' House) (HdO) in Stralsund in celebration of the first anniversary of this house. A total of 367 persons, including 85 sea police members (officers and candidate officers in their third year of service), attended the party.¹ In the course of the evening, the guests were entertained by musical performances of the Stralsund Municipal Theater and performances of a ballet group and a folk dance group from Rostock. Dancing followed and continued until 0400; the bar was busy until 0600 and later. The total turnover of this night was calculated at 6,000 DME including the sum of 1,300 DME spent at the bar.²
